Dear Trusted Advisor,

You know charitable giving is an integral part of holistic financial planning.

Your clients want to have a positive impact on their world, now and in the future. They want the things they do to matter, to have a deeper meaning or purpose. And many want to support the local community where they have lived and prospered.

United Way works in lockstep with local agencies, residents who know their communities best, and donors like your clients. We design solutions that prioritize the people and places who are being left behind. We fight local poverty.

Please reach out anytime to discuss your client's interests and intentions.

Together, we can help them leave a meaningful legacy and make a difference in their community.

Sincerely,
