

United Way
Greater Toronto

Mid-Scarborough Community Hub

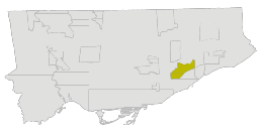

2026

The Neighbourhoods of Eglinton East-Kennedy Park

Eglinton East-Kennedy Park is located in the Eglinton Avenue and Brimley Avenue area of Scarborough. Almost 57.6 per cent of the population are immigrants to Canada and bring with them a rich collection of cultures that make the community vibrant. But the area also faces barriers to reaching its full potential. There is a high concentration of poverty, with 15.3 per cent of families living on low incomes. The youth population at 12.8 percent lack access to safe public spaces, programs and services, and face a high unemployment rate.

39,976 people live in the Eglinton East-Kennedy Park neighbourhood.

17.6% is the unemployment rate for the neighbourhood compared to 13.8% for the city as a whole.

15.3%
of families are living on low incomes.

51%
of the neighbourhood population has post-secondary education.
(62.4% City-wide)

12.8%
of the population are youth aged 15-24 years old.

The Hub Mid-Scarborough

Size: 16,200 Square Feet

Opened: December 2009

Agencies in Hub: Scarborough Centre for Healthy Communities (lead agency)

- Big Brothers Big Sisters Toronto
 - Toronto Public Health Dental and Oral Health Services
 - YMCA Scarborough Employment & Community Services
 - Alzheimer Society of Toronto
- Fred Victor Centre
 - Vasantham Tamil Seniors Wellness Centre

Services: Health services (including access to doctors, nurses, dietitians, dentists) and health education (including diabetes and Alzheimer supports); mental health supports; wellness programs for diverse seniors; employment supports; supports for people experiencing housing precarity; youth services including violence prevention and leadership programming; and services for residents including engagement programs and volunteer opportunities.

Since it opened its doors, the Hub has had a significant impact in the community (updated as of Mar. 2026):

