

United Way
Greater Toronto

Victoria Park Community Hub

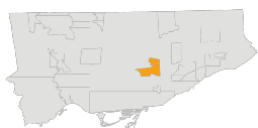

2026

The Neighbourhood of Flemingdon Park-Victoria Village

The priority neighbourhoods of Flemingdon Park-Victoria Village sit at the western edge of Scarborough's Golden Mile. The neighbourhood boasts a rich collection of cultures and is home to many newcomers to Canada—with over 58.3 per cent immigrants residing in the community. It also faces a number of challenges. The northern part of the area is highly industrial with few community resources for the people who live there and will be transformed over the next two decades with development triggered by the Eglinton LRT. Barriers facing newcomers and a high population of seniors create very specific needs in the community. There is also a concentration of poverty, with 18.9 per cent of residents living on low incomes.

40,200

people live in the Flemingdon Park-Victoria Village neighbourhood.

16.7%

is the unemployment rate for the neighbourhood, compared to 13.8% for the city as a whole.

18.9%

of families are living on low incomes.

54.5%

of the neighbourhood population has post-secondary education. (62.4% City-wide)

17.1%

population that are seniors.

Victoria Park Community Hub

Size: 12,300 Square Feet

Opened: December 2010

Agencies in Hub: Working Women Community Centre (lead agency)

- YMCA Youth Employment
- The Neighbourhood Group
- East Toronto Chinese Baptist Church
- Family Services Toronto
- Centre for Inclusive Economic Opportunity

Services: Settlement services, including a resource centre and computer lab; nutrition programs; elder abuse counselling and fitness programs for seniors; specialized counselling and settlement services; employment supports and workshops; co-working space; community engagement programming and volunteer opportunities, including a cook and learn program, conversation club, social club and other workshops.

Since it opened its doors, the Hub has had a significant impact in the community (updated as of Mar. 2026):

395,048

The total number of visits that have been made to the Hub, giving a sense of how many community members are making use of vital programs and services at the Hub.

37,895

The number of visits to the Hub by youth (13-24) who accessed programs and services.

75,081

The number of visits by seniors, demonstrating how the Hub is addressing service gaps for this population, significant within the area.

192,164

The number of times residents have participated in activities in community space, demonstrating how the Hub provides opportunities for residents to connect and participate in local events.